

I like talking and listening to others	I like maths	I like literacy	I like being creative	I like being kind and helpful	Time to get physical
*Chat to your family about the celebrations you join in with at home	*Think about the ages of the people in your family- who's the oldest/ youngest?	*Can you sing your favourite celebration song or poem?	*Create a piece of music using play instruments or even household instruments (such as pans and spoons)	*How have you helped someone to feel special on their birthday?	*Are you part of a sports group- what are you learning about?
*Tell your grown-ups something new that you've learnt today	*What's your favourite number? Can you write/ talk/ draw some facts about it (e.g. how can you make this number?)	*Read and write all the sounds in your name and the people in your family	*Take a photograph/ make a movie about a special occasion	*Can you say something kind to someone you love?	*Can you dress yourself for school and bedtime every day?
*Describe your favourite activity at school this week and explain why	*Can you spot and write a list of everyday 2D and 3D shapes at home (e.g. football, cereal box)	*Can you play rhyme ping-pong?	*Help to cut, wrap and stick a present for a friend	*Talk about who is the kindest person you know? How are you like them?	*How do you keep yourself warm and safe in the winter?
*Retell a favourite story	*Can you design your own wrapping paper with repeating patterns?	*Draw a story map/ cartoon pictures of your favourite story	*Design a card using the computer	*How have you helped a troubled friend- tell your grown-up what you did	*Can you write words/ sentences outside? (Chalks, water and paintbrushes, sand, shaving foam, sticks)
*Can you listen to someone speaking for 5 minutes without speaking back?	* Can you help to count the coins needed to buy a present for a special person?	*Play the squash-it game- blend the sounds together to read the whole word/ sentences in your reading book	*Do some baking and bring it in for us to try!	*Keep a tally of how many times you have said please or thank you this weekend	*Can you create a celebratory dance and perform it?

GLAM Mission Question: Why do we Celebrate?